CHILD CARE IS ESSENTIAL

FOR FAMILIES, COMMUNITY, AND THE ECONOMY

If you need help finding child care, Alameda County R&Rs are here for you

Alameda County has three Child Care Resource and Referral (R&R) Agencies. These agencies offer free child care information and referral services for all families, regardless of income. If you need help paying for child care, ask staff about child care payment assistance.

510-582-2182

San Leandro, San

Lorenzo, and Union City.

Hively

925-417-8733 www.4calameda.org www.behively.org For families who live in For families who live in Southern Alameda County: Eastern Alameda Ashland/Cherryland, County: Dublin, Castro Valley, Fremont, Livermore, Pleasanton, Hayward, Newark, and Sunol.

510-658-7353 (Office) 510-658-0381 (Referral) www.bananasbunch.org For families who live in Northern Alameda County: Alameda, Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville, Oakland, and Piedmont.

Child Care Resource and Referral agencies are supported by funding from the California Department of Education, Early Education and Support Division and are located in every county in the state. To find an agency outside of Alameda County, call 800-543-7793 or visit https://rrnetwork.org/family-services/find-child-care.